

A bank uses positive numbers to represent deposits and negative numbers to represent withdrawals.

How would a bank represent a withdrawal of 19.43 dollars?

- ☐ 19.43 dollars
- ☐ -19.43 dollars

Geographers use negative numbers to represent points below sea level and positive numbers to represent points above sea level.

How would geographers represent a point  $6\frac{1}{2}$  meters below sea level?

- ☒  $6\frac{1}{2}$  meters
- ☐  $-6\frac{1}{2}$  meters

Banks use negative balances to represent when the customer owes the bank money and positive balances to represent when the bank owes the customer money.

Justin has a balance of 0 dollars at his local bank.

What does a balance of 0 dollars represent?

- ☒ Justin owes the bank money.
- ☐ Justin gave half of his money to charity.
- ☐ The bank owes Justin money.
- ☐ Neither Justin nor the bank owe each other money.

